"The Synod on Synodality"

Dear Parishioners,

Pope Francis called for a worldwide synod of the Church which will involve all Catholic parishes in our Archdiocese and throughout the world. The goal of this process is to help our bishops prepare for the "Assembly of the Synod of Bishops" in October 2023. This may also include other groups with whom our parish interacts and ministers. This may be the first you have heard about it, so I hope this bulletin letter will help explain what a synod is and what it is not as well as a sneak peek at what we plan to do in order to join the synodal process.

What is a Synod? The word comes from two Greek words, one meaning "together", and the other meaning "road" or "way." The term connotes a quality about how the Church is to accomplish its mission. In the early Church, the term was used to describe how the people of "the Way" (earliest term for Christians) would purposely come together and form permanent communities. Eventually, this term was used to express a gathering of the Church locally, regionally, or globally. So it expresses a way of gathering with a sense of being on a journey together.

Today, it describes a type of gathering of bishops by which they discern how the Lord is calling them and the rest of the Church to follow Jesus. This word is the root of two other related words, "synodal" or "synodality," both of which express the style of this gathering. How to pronounce these words is a challenge. Try "sin-ah-d", "sin-ah-dal", and "sin-ah-dal-ity" respectively.

The gathering is intended to reflect on how the Church carries out her mission, journeying together in order to more effectively proclaim the Gospel. This is an ancient approach to "being" Church. The gathering (Synod) is a way of gathering and discerning what the Holy Spirit is calling the Church to do and be. Another way of describing it is a mode-of-being. Archbishop Sample taught that this Synod will be about how to be Church, how to be synodal. This is why the current topic of this Synod is precisely about synodality. So, it is a "Synod on Synodality," a gathering where the Church journeys together to discover and experience what it means to be a pilgrim people called to proclaim the Gospel.

What this Synod is not. It is not a gathering to determine doctrine or settle theological issues. Some pundits have already called for warning, noting the German Bishops who erroneously called their recent gatherings as a "synodal way" which was used to tackle the hot topics of their culture. Cardinal Marc Ouellet, prefect of the Congregation for Bishops in Rome challenged the German bishops, writing that their make-up was "not ecclesologically valid." The German bishops' approach has been more akin to a "Particular Council" or a Council of the Catholic Church in Germany. A "Council" is, technically speaking, a meeting of bishops given authority to make law for their region or country, but only under direct authority of Rome who approves the agenda. None of that happened. Pope Francis weighed in as well and warned them writing, "Every time the ecclesial community has tried to resolve its problems alone, trusting and focusing exclusively on its forces or its methods, its intelligence, its will or prestige, it ended up increasing and perpetuating the evils it tried to solve." So have no worries, Rome has responded and offered correction. This is not the process or goal of the current "Synod on Synodality."

Archbishop Sample's own reflection and commentary, in preparation for our part in the synodal process, recognized that we live in unique and challenging times and that we are no longer living in a time where Christian faith guides the minds and hearts of our culture. Instead, we are in a new Apostolic time where few express Christian faith. He recognized that how we used to do things as Church doesn't work anymore. This is not an issue of doctrine, but an issue of evangelization and outreach to those who have left the Church and those in our world who are lost and don't know Jesus Christ and his Gospel (cf. Opening comments, Synodal Workshop, January 20, 2022). He further shared that The Pope wants to "lead us in a process that will help us all together, in the universal church, to walk together...to learn how to be the Church in a new way, a way of mutual discernment... guided by the Holy Spirit, absolutely soaked in prayer, so that we can truly discern what the Holy Spirit...is asking of us today in our time and in our archdiocese."

This last Saturday, January 29th, parishioners gathered for a time of adoration in our church in order to increase our zeal of the Eucharist and pray for divine guidance for the Synodal process, a deeper appreciation of the dignity and sacredness of human life, an end to abortion, and a renewed spirit and light for all parishes and parishioners in the Portland and Baker Dioceses.

I will write more about the Synod in the weeks to come. In the meantime, if you wish to participate in our local synodal discernment process, save one of these two dates: March 3rd at 6 PM or March 12th at 8 AM. Each of these dates will host a gathering which will begin with Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament followed by a time of gathering for discernment about the coming Synod of the Church.

Blessings,

Fr. William Holtzinger, Pastor

CELEBRATING THE SAINTS

ST JOSEPH OF LEONISSA (1556 - 1612), was born in Italy and joined the Capuchin Franciscans in 1573. He evangelized among the poor in Italy, ministered to Christian slaves in a penal colony in Turkey, and assisted the sick in a plague.

Imprisoned and sentenced to death for his work,
he escaped and returned to Italy and preached among the poor. He had the gift of prophecy and miracles were attributed to him. His meekness and charity endeared him to people and helped him reconcile feuding

Abortion Case UpdateDobbs v Jackson Women's Health

The case challenging the Mississippi law banning abortions after 15 weeks was argued before the US Supreme Court on December 1st. The question for the Court is whether pre-viability bans on elective abortions are constitutional. The Court could modify or overturn its 1973 Roe v Wade decision that legalized abortion. A decision is not expected until next June.

From USCCB Statement (January 21, 2022)

“The Catholic Church’s opposition to abortion is a response of love for both mothers and their children in the womb. The Church’s teaching proclaims a message of life, reminding us that every life is a sacred gift from God from the moment of conception until natural death. We invite all Catholics and people of good will to fast and pray frequently between now and June that this important case [Dobbs] might reverse Roe and its unjust abortion license.”

Whole Woman’s Health v Jackson

On December 10th the US Supreme Court let stand SB 8, the Texas law banning most abortions after 6 weeks, and ruled that the abortion providers’ case against state licensing officials can go ahead. The case was sent to the Court of Appeals, then to the Texas Supreme Court for a ruling on the authority of state licensing officials under SB 8. Depending on the ruling, the case may be sent back to the Federal District Court for the case to proceed.

HUMANAE VITAE 50 YEARS LATER: HISTORY OF DISSENT AND DEFENSE

Janet Smith, Ph.D. a seminary professor and internationally-known author and speaker, provides important context for why Humanae Vitae is considered the most controversial, and one of the most important, encyclicals promulgated by the Church in modern times. She discusses how this document written by Blessed Pope Paul VI served to prophetically warn the world of the dire consequences associated with artificial contraception and faithfully witness to the beauty of God's plan for sex within marriage.

Vatican Prayer for the Synod

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.

Amen.
