Bulletin Advertisers

Every year, the printers who print our bulletins come to us to see if there are any businesses in our community who might be interested in advertising on the back of our bulletin. The cost of printing our bulletin is covered by the generous advertisers on the back of our bulletin. If you have a business and are interested in helping our church cover this cost, please contact the phone number on the bottom of the back page of the bulletin or you can call the Parish Office and we will make sure they get your name and contact information. There is a flyer on the table in the Narthex with contact information.

For those businesses who already advertise in our bulletin – thank you for your support!

Fifteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

On a summer day, with the windows open, we may hear the sound of church bells. Bells seem to have come into church life in Irish monasteries around the seventh century, and spread around the Christian world by Irish monks on missionary journeys. By the eighth century, bells were standard equipment in even small parish churches. An ancient ceremony, once called the “baptism of the bells,” recognizes that the church bell has a voice to call people to awareness and summon them to worship, and even bestows a name on the bell.

In a world without clocks or watches, the bell had an indispensable role. For calling monks in from the fields for prayer, or alerting far-flung visitors, the bell’s voice was enhanced by hoisting it high into a tower. Soon it was learned that the sound of several bells clanging together in harmony imparted a sense of joy to great celebrations, and bell towers prospered, some chock full of bells. Different combinations of rings could indicate a death, a Mass, a wedding, a fast day, the curfew at the end of day, and the Angelus. Before electricity, bell-ringing was hard work indeed: the biggest bell in the Catholic world, in Cologne, Germany, weighs twenty-seven tons! There’s no substitute for the resonant roar of a mighty bell; electric chimes are not eligible for blessing!

HOMEBOUND MINISTERS NEEDED

Is Jesus calling you to this special ministry?

We are in great need of individuals who would be willing to join in the ministry to our Homebound parishioners. Many of our parishioners cannot come to be with us at Mass and rely on others to bring Holy Communion to them in their homes. We are looking for individuals with a deep love for the Eucharist and a willingness to serve.

Please contact the parish office at 541-476-2240 if you are interested.

Be sure to check out the Lighthouse Kiosk located in the Church narthex. The payment slot is on the lower right side of the Kiosk.

DAILY PRAYERS TO SAVE AMERICA – THE MANTLE OF MARY PROJECT (BOOKLET)

Help God save America. Millions of Catholics share a profound certainty that something has gone terribly wrong with our country. An immense war in the spiritual realm is being waged to determine the future of America.

Using the three prayers in this book, you (and the people you know) can now do something about it every day. We pray. God wins.

Something to Think About This Week:

"[Jesus turned and said] 'What are you looking for?'"
Jn 1: 38

CELEBRATING THE SAINTS

ST BENEDICT (c. 480 - c. 547), was born in Nursia

(Italy) and when he was 17 decided to become a hermit. Living in a cave, he was joined by other men who chose him as their leader. After establishing several monasteries in that area, he and a group of monks left for Monte Cassino, where he founded the famous Benedictine monastery. Benedict also composed "The Rule," a set of guidelines for monks living in community that prescribed periods of prayer, meditation and manual labor. He is the father of Western monasticism.

"Ora et Labora" (Pray and Work)
(St Benedict's motto)

His Feast Day is July 11th

"I know Jesus is always in the tabernacle, Pastor Al, but most of all I love knowing he's always in here."

LIFE, JUSTICE, AND PEACE US Supreme Court Cases

Religious Freedom (2 Cases):

On June 21st the Court ruled on a case involving a tuition assistance program in Maine that excludes religious schools. The program provides funding to parents whose children who attend public or private schools, but not religious schools. The parents in this case chose a Christian school and were denied funding. The Court held that the program violates the First Amendment because it excludes schools on the basis of their religious exercise.

And on June 27th the Court ruled in favor of a high school football coach in Washington who was fired by the school district for praying on the football field. After each game the coach would kneel on the 50-yard line and pray, joined by players who wished to pray with him. The Court held that the coach was wrongfully terminated because his prayers were protected by the free speech and free exercise of religion clauses of the First Amendment, and were not in violation of the establishment of religion clause.

Gun Rights:

On June 23rd the Court struck down a New York law requiring applicants for a license to carry a concealed handgun in public to demonstrate "proper cause," ie., a special need for self defense. The Court held that this requirement infringes on the Second Amendment's guarantee of the right "to keep and bear arms." This ruling could affect other types of firearms restrictions that are in effect or under consideration.

RIGHT RELATIONSHIPS

Our God is about relationships. In the first reading, Moses reminds the Israelites that the laws, which are already in their hearts, keep them in right relationship with the God who loves them so much that they always find forgiveness. Centuries later, along comes Jesus, whom Paul describes to the Colossians as “the image of the invisible God,” the very embodiment of this God of love. In his parable about the good Samaritan, Jesus explains how the law of love overrules the letter of the law. Instead of answering the question “Who is my neighbor?” Jesus demonstrates that it is not about who is worthy of being loved, but rather loving as God loves—about being neighbor, about being the good Samaritan. Jesus wants us to continue his work as images of this God of love by loving all people, even those who seem to be our enemies.

Dear Parishioners,

On my first day of work, a couple weeks ago, I sat down with Carol Scherf, our Parish Manager. Among other things, we discussed what budget I would be working with for the year ahead. Not only has our efforts in youth ministry been recently slowed, but my role has a new, major focus on family ministry. A lot of work has to be done to figure out what expenses we'll even have! But that doesn't stop my brain from whirring with ideas about retreats, events and gifts of resources and support for families. These things usually involve expense. And this leads me to my point.

Carol shared with me a source of revenue that has supported countless youth in our community for years. It has provided a continual gift of thousands of dollars to be used for ministry that supports our young brothers and sisters in Christ. And it exists in no small part thanks to the tireless efforts of one of our parishioners, Bill Brady. That is, our can collection. First, let me thank Bill. He has always been a warm and inviting face in our community. I did not realize the amount of effort he gives to the collection and depositing of these cans. Second, let me thank all of you who donate your beverage containers to us outside the Kelly Youth Center. It is a major help. I promise to use the funds raised through this program as wisely as I can to help support our families and the youth of our community. If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask.

Thanks and God bless!

Brian Suda
Coordinator of Youth & Family Ministry

St. Kateri Tekakwitha, otherwise known as the "Lily of the Mohawks," became our first Native American Saint after her canonization in 2012. During her life, young Kateri suffered much ridicule due to her counter-cultural decision to remain a virgin out of love for Christ. As we celebrate Kateri's feast day today, enjoy this short audio book that describes Kateri's journey to Our Lord within the context of her native tribe.

If you would like to support the Chapel by being available for backup hours in the case of vacations or alternate commitments that crop up from time to time, it would be immensely helpful. Summer is upon us and I know there will be vacancies from time to time. This would just be for the hours of Exposition 9:30am to Noon, Monday through Friday when the office is open. It would just be for one hour during Exposition.

In most cases, vacations, etc. the vacancy would be known ahead of time. There are occasional last minute changes and so far we have been able to cover for them but a few more names would make it easier. If you would like to be involved in this way please call Julie Scott.

The Chapel is available to parishioners 7 days a week 24 hours per day. It is secured by a keypad. If you have not visited the Chapel before please call the office for the code.
