SYNODAL PRIMER: SCRIPTURES & QUESTIONS

Dear Parishioners,

We are just under a month until we host our synodal gatherings (see last two week's bulletins for details). As such I would like to share with you the Scriptures and questions upon which we will be pondering. These will be the focus of our prayers in adoration as well as our reflections in the discernment time which will follow. This is just a primer so that you can bounce these scriptures and questions around in your heart, asking the Holy Spirit to help you be open without any agenda, have an openness to the synodal process, and be given a joy of anticipation for our time together.

SCRIPTURE 1

John 3:16-17: For God so loved the world that he gave his only Son, so that everyone who believes in him might not perish but might have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him.

Question 1: What in the church fills me with life? How is the Holy Spirit working in my life to deepen my faith and inspire me to be a better disciple and witness of Christ's love to others?

SCRIPTURE 2

Hebrews 10:21-24: Since we have "a great priest over the house of God," let us approach with a sincere heart and in absolute trust, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed in pure water. Let us hold unwaveringly to our confession that gives us hope, for he who made the promise is trustworthy. We must consider how to rouse one another to love and good works.

Question 2: As a community of believers, what experiences of the Catholic Church have brought joys or revealed wounds? And how can these experiences help us grow together in faith and offer the hope and healing of Christ to the greater community in which we live?

SCRIPTURE 3

1John 1:1-4: What was from the beginning, what we have heard, what we have seen with our eyes, what we looked upon and touched with our hands concerns the Word of life — for the life was made visible; we have seen it and testify to it and proclaim to you the eternal life that was with the Father and was made visible to us — what we have seen and heard we proclaim now to you, so that you too may have fellowship with us; for our fellowship is with the Father and with his Son, Jesus Christ. We are writing this so that our joy may be complete.

Question 3: As a Catholic community, we are expressly enjoined to invite others into a life-giving relationship with Jesus Christ. When we dream about how best to accomplish this, what steps is the Holy Spirit inviting the Church in western Oregon to take?

All participants will be given a handout with these Scriptures and questions as well as guidelines for the "Table Conversations." So, you will not need to remember these items or bring a copy of this letter to the Synodal gathering you choose to attend. Again, my hope is that you would use these for prayer and preparation in the Holy Spirit until we gather together on March 3rd or 12th.

ST. ANNE DISCERNMENT SESSIONS

Thurs., March 3 @ 6 PM
Sat., March 12 @ 8 AM

Sessions will begin with 1 hr of Adoration followed by discussion sessions in the church

Blessings,

Fr. William Holtzinger, Pastor

Vatican Prayer for the Synod

We stand before You, Holy Spirit, as we gather together in Your name.

With You alone to guide us, make Yourself at home in our hearts;

Teach us the way we must go and how we are to pursue it.

We are weak and sinful; do not let us promote disorder.

Do not let ignorance lead us down the wrong path nor partiality influence our actions. Let us find in You our unity so that we may journey together to eternal life and not stray from the way of truth and what is right.

All this we ask of You, who are at work in every place and time, in the communion of the Father and the Son, forever and ever.

Amen.

CELEBRATING THE SAINTS

ST GILBERT OF SEMPRINGHAM (1083 - 1189), born into a wealthy family in England, went to France for his higher education and entered the seminary. When he returned to England he inherited several estates from his father, but he lived simply and shared as much as he could with the poor. He served as a Parish Priest and helped establish a religious order called the Gilbertines, which practiced Gilbert's concern for the poor, but the order was suppressed by King Henry VIII. Gilbert led a simple, austere life, spending many nights in prayer.

His Feast Day is February 16th

LIFE, JUSTICE, AND PEACE

Racial Justice

From the USCCB Pastoral Letter Against Racism: “Open Wide Our Hearts”

As Bishops of the US Catholic Church we want to address one particularly destructive and persistent form of evil. Despite many promising strides made in our country, racism still infects our nation.

Racism arises when - consciously or unconsciously - a person holds that his or her own race or ethnicity is superior, and therefore judges persons of other races or ethnicities as inferior and unworthy of equal regard. When this conviction or attitude leads to excluding, ridiculing, mistreating, or unjustly discriminating against persons on the basis of their race or ethnicity, it is sinful.

- Racism can be found in our hearts - in many cases placed there unwillingly or unknowingly by our upbringing and culture.
- Racism can be institutional - when practices or traditions treat certain groups of people differently.
- Racism comes in many forms - in symbols of hatred; in discrimination in hiring, housing, educational opportunities, and incarceration; in racial profiling; in xenophobic rhetoric instigating fear against foreigners, immigrants and refugees.
- Racism often comes in the form of sins of omission - remaining silent and failing to act against racial injustice.

We pray for the end of racism all its forms, that we may all walk together humbly with God in renewed unity. There is no place for racism in the heart of any person; it is a perversion of God's will, for all men and women are made in God's image and likeness.
