“Feed My Sheep”

Dear Parishioners,

This Sunday's Gospel is a magnificent moment in the life of Peter who had betrayed Jesus. Before Simon was able to even apologize, Jesus called him to himself and asked him three times if he loved him. Each time, Simon said, yes, thus restoring him and his relationship with our Lord. With each affirmation, Jesus then commissioned him to feed his lambs, tend his sheep, and feed his sheep. Then he shared with Simon that in his coming ministry, Simon would suffer and ultimately die for the glory of God.

This episode was not just for Simon. It is for us as well. We are all being called to lay down our lives in order to tend to the poor and the downcast, to feed the young and old with the saving message of the Gospel. We often might cringe at such a prospect, especially knowing how obstinate our culture is to the Christian Faith. But, it is the path that we are all called to walk.

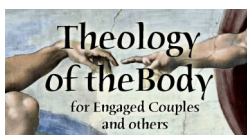

For me, I receive the words of our Lord in the context of my coming departure and reassignment. I am dedicated to the mission here at St. Anne until the last moment of my ministry here, and yet I know that I am being called to leave, something that brings sadness to my heart. I have spent much time in prayer and thought about this coming transition, and I trust that my own “death” to my role as your pastor is part of God's plan, part of what will give him glory. I have heard from many of you, of your mutual sadness and desire for me to stay. Thank you for your love and care in this regard. Please pray that I will be able to fulfill the new calling I have received.

It was critical to Christ's mission that he sent out his Apostles, and by extension, us, into the world so that others may come to know him. In time, you will receive a new pastor. I can only imagine the stress he must be feeling knowing that he is being called to move from his current parish. One thing that he does not know, but I believe he will discover very quickly, is how welcoming and loving you all are. So, just as I am being sent away, he is being sent here. Please pray for him, though we know not his name at this writing. Pray that God will prepare you to welcome him as we would Christ (Benedictine motto).

I know how much you love the Lord, and I am excited for whomever the new pastor will be, because he will encounter you whom I love so much. May we all take to heart the commission that Simon received as our own. May we pray for all our priests who will be moving next month. Let us all cast our nets, metaphorically speaking, to receive the amazing gifts that God has in store for us here as well as in heaven.

Blessings,

Fr. William Holtzinger
Pastor

CELEBRATING THE SAINTS

ST ROSE VENERINI (1656 - 1728), born in Viterbo, Italy, felt she was called to enter the convent, but then realized her calling was to be a teacher. After starting a free school for girls, she was tasked with overseeing the training of teachers and school administration in her diocese. She was also asked to organize schools in other cities, including Rome, where she died in 1728. A number of miracles were attributed to her. The group of women she gathered with for prayer became a religious congregation, the Venerini Sisters. She was canonized in 2006.

Her Feast Day is May 7th

Tenth Station: Jesus is Stripped of His Garments

Natasha, from Mariupol: Half a million Mariupol residents are cut off from life. There are no streets left with undestroyed houses. The bodies of the dead are buried in the courtyards of residential sectors. There is no light, heat, water, food, communications in the city. Children are dying of dehydration. The enemy cynically breaks the promised “green corridors,” blocking any attempts to deliver food and medicines.

Eleventh Station: Jesus is Nailed to the Cross

Yaroslava, from Borodianka: A shell hit my apartment in a four-story building — it is no more. Hiding with my mother in the basements of private houses. In Borodianka, Kadyrovites (Chechnyan paramilitary soldiers working with the Russian army) — are shooting at locals, shelling is constantly being carried out. We are exhausted both physically and mentally. We are constantly crying...

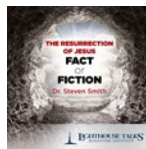

Lord, give us the faithfulness to not look away.

[From America Magazine and Ukraine victims of war]

Next Week: Stations 12 and 13

THE RESURRECTION OF JESUS: FACT OR FICTION?

Come to grips with “what really happened to Jesus” as Dr. Steven Smith explores Resurrection narratives from the vantage point of each of the four Gospels as well as many of the vital medical details of Roman crucifixion. Dr. Steven Smith is a professor of Sacred Scripture at Mount Saint Mary's Seminary, in Emmitsburg, Maryland. Dr. Smith earned his Ph.D from Loyola University in Chicago, where he specialized in the study of the Gospels and their relationship to the Old Testament.

ST. ANNE CATHOLIC SCHOOL

541-479-1582

website: stanneschoolgp.com

"St. Anne Catholic School is committed to faith formation, scholarship, leadership, and service according to our Catholic values."

As the year begins to wind down, we have had some fun things happening here at St. Anne Catholic School.

The 6th grade class is now leading the school every morning in the pledge of allegiance, Our Father and the school prayer. It's the 6th Grade Scoop News Channel 3 complete with a joke of the day and guests from other classes. They are doing a great job and all the classes enjoy this special time together in the morning.

We celebrated Health Week with a variety of themes - Germ Day, Dental presentation, Veggie Day, Mental Health Day, and Active Day. We are so thankful for our parent volunteers who made this week a success - Dr. Erikson, Sara and Jayden Clasby, Veronica and Nick Kucharik, Katie Garibay, Amie and Chancey Small, Ashley and Zachary McLaughlin, Natasha Coon, Megan Lawson and Tatyanna Wright. We ended the week with the school-led Stations of the Cross on Friday night. The students and families did a wonderful job and it can be viewed on our Facebook page.

Holy Week was a time filled with special reflections on the events leading up to the crucifixion of our Savior, Jesus Christ. Activities, readings, and discussions focused on the betrayal of Jesus, the Last Supper, the Passion of Christ, and culminated in a special Stations of the Cross for the school led by the 5th and 6th grade students on Good Friday. Then the students got to make Easter baskets with materials and candy provided by Tricia Buckmaster. Emma Fisher received the sacraments of baptism, First Holy Communion, and Confirmation at the Easter Vigil.

Last week began with a snowshoe hike up at Crater Lake for the 5th and 6th grade classes. The week ended with Earth Day which was celebrated with special activities for all the classes led by the Small family. The focus was on bees, what they do for us, and how we can help them survive and thrive. That same day, the 5th and 6th grade classes cooked a meal for the Warming Shelter, under the direction of Brianne Kleiner, that was delivered by Shelby and Emma Fisher.

We are excited, as restrictions lift, to be able to have field trips and more activities for our students and community again. There will be some classes walking to an art show, a trip to the Rogue Creamery, and we will be hosting a Spaghetti and Dinner Bingo night on May 14. All are invited to the Spaghetti and Bingo night with dinner served from 6-7pm and bingo starting at 6:30pm. We will have three class baskets to raffle off and prizes that include several gift cards.
