WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

2nd Collection
October 24th

Next weekend we will celebrate World Mission Sunday. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to support mission dioceses in Africa, Asia, the Pacific Islands, and parts of Latin America and Europe, where priests, religious and lay leaders serve the world's most vulnerable communities. Please keep the Pope's missions in your prayers and be generous in next week's collection for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith.

Twenty-ninth Sunday in Ordinary Time TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

In the eyes of many, the papacy is a peculiar institution. Still bedecked with some of the regalia of medieval princes, contemporary popes have worked to define their role in ways that give them influence over the world both within and outside the Church. The trappings of royalty, never really a good fit for the successors of Peter, could render a pope distant and irrelevant. On the other hand, the tendency of many to think of the pope as if he were the CEO of a modern corporation is also inaccurate.

St. Gregory the Great, himself a pope, first called the pope "the servant of the servants of God." He is "first among equals" among other bishops, who by tradition exercise significant authority within their own dioceses, not depending on the pope's authority. This arrangement often puzzles those accustomed to a top-to-bottom "chain of command." History has seen popes of many styles, but most strive to live up to Gregory's definition. Perhaps today's Gospel puts it all into the best perspective: "Whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all." Pray for the pope this week.

THE HUMANITY OF JESUS CHRIST

All three readings today support—each in its own way, of course—a reflection on the humanity of Jesus Christ and how that humanity played a key role in the drama of our salvation. Although not chosen specifically to coordinate with the other two readings, today's second reading does in fact carry forward the theme of Christ's humanity in a remarkable way. The author of the Letter to the Hebrews highlights the solidarity that exists between Jesus and us, precisely because in his human nature Jesus has known the same sufferings and testing that are our own experience. Because he can "sympathize with our weaknesses," we can "approach the throne of grace to receive mercy." For the author of Hebrews, the humanity of Jesus was an essential requirement for his redemptive death, as well as an invitation to us to find in Jesus someone with whom we can identify in our daily struggles.

FEAST OF FAITH Only Say the Word

The bread is broken, the banquet is prepared, and now we are invited to the feast. Once more the priest holds the host, now broken, for us to see, and invites us to behold the one "who takes away the sins of the world." Truly blessed and happy are those invited to this meal, which is a foretaste of the heavenly banquet, the supper of the Lamb (Revelation 19:19). We respond to this invitation with a prayer to the Lord: we acknowledge that we are not worthy, but at the same time we are confident that the One who comes to us can heal us, body and soul. This prayer echoes the story of the centurion in Luke's Gospel. The centurion, a Gentile, asks healing for his servant, but does not consider himself worthy to have Jesus come under his roof—he believes that Jesus can heal his servant with a word, without even seeing him. Jesus is amazed at his faith. It is the same for us. We believe that Jesus speaks to us, comes to us, dwells with us, even though we neither hear his voice nor see his face.

CELEBRATING THE SAINTS

ST PAUL OF THE CROSS (1694 - 1775), was born in northern Italy, the second of 16 children. After a year in the Venetian Army he turned to solitary prayer and developed a devotion to Christ's passion. In 1720 he founded the Congregation of the Passion, aka the Passionists, who added a fourth vow to poverty, chastity and obedience: to spread the memory of Christ's passion among the faithful. In addition to gifts of prophecy and healing, Paul touched many hearts with his preaching and generosity.

LIFE, JUSTICE, AND PEACE*Immigration Update*DACA (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals)

On September 28th the Department of Homeland Security published proposed regulations to preserve and fortify the DACA Program. A 60-day public comment period will allow interested parties to submit comments before the regulations are finalized.

DHS took this action following a July 16th ruling by a Federal Judge in Texas finding that the DACA Program was unlawful because it was established in 2012 without compliance with the required regulatory procedures. The Judge's ruling allows the Program to remain in force for current DACA recipients so they are still protected, but does not allow DHS to approve any new applications. The Administration has appealed this ruling.

The DACA Program allows certain undocumented persons brought to the US as children, known as Dreamers, to remain in the country. It provides temporary protection from deportation and authorization to work, but does not create a pathway to citizenship.

Only Congress can provide permanent protection to Dreamers. Last March the House of Representatives passed the American Dream and Promise Act. The USCCB has urged the Senate to join the House in passing legislation that would provide legal status and a path to citizenship for all Dreamers.

FATIMA: LIVING THE MESSAGE

In a time of lost innocence, the faith of three children inspired thousands and made the world believe in miracles. Mary's messages at Fatima have been promoted by Popes, approved by the Church, and validated by over 70,000 witnesses. Fr. Jason Brooks brings to light why Fatima is regarded by many as the most important spiritual event of the past 100 years. BONUS: Fr. Shanon Collins, retreat master and well known speaker on EWTN, explains the intended impact and opportunity of the messages of Fatima on the spiritual lives of believers today.

ST. ANNE SCHOOL AUCTION

For the 2021/2022 school year, we are in need of a volunteer to chair the auction committee. We are looking for someone who has previous experience in running or co-running an auction. Shawna will be a resource for this auction chairperson and will work closely with the chair to keep the various jobs organized and running smoothly through the year. We anticipate that we will hold our annual auction dinner in May, 2022. Finding a chairperson now will ensure that committees and workers will have plenty of time to do all the necessary jobs in order to hold a successful auction. The auction dinner is the main fundraiser of the year. If you are interested, please contact Shawna at the school office or email her at sprestianni@stannegp.com.
