A Heart Full of Gratitude

Dear Parishioners,

My time here at St. Anne and her missions comes to a close this week. It is poetic that this is the Thirteenth Sunday in Ordinary time as well as my 13th year as your pastor. This is a very sad thing for me and for many of you. This is the longest I have stayed in one parish assignment which makes this all the more difficult to bid you, goodbye. But, looking back, my heart is full of gratitude. So, pardon if this last letter rambles some. So be it.

I leave with wonderful memories and lessons. I have had the privilege to work with your children, been on retreats with your teens, offered blessings for your graduations, helped you prepare for marriage, presided over your weddings, baptized your children, blessed your anniversaries, anointed you when you were sick, offered some of you the commendation of the dying, and celebrated your loved ones funerals, and mourned with you at their burials. I have been deeply touched that you allowed me in to your struggles and was humbled to hear your confessions. I was honored to join you in your many celebrations of life and visited many of you in the hospital, care facilities, retirement centers, and homes. I made many friends, and have felt your prayerful support throughout these thirteen years. I could go on and on.

I became a priest as an effort to thank God for all that he has done for me. And in return, he gave me a grand adventure unlike any I could have imagined. All of you are part of that adventure which now turns a page to a new chapter. And so, thank you for what you have taught me. Thank you for your patience with me. Thank you for gently correcting me. Thank you for saying yes when I asked you to join a ministry. Thank you for stepping up to serve without even being asked. Thank you for putting up with my long homilies. Thank you for listening and sharing your faith with me. Thank you for being Christ's hands and feet for me. Thank you for laughing at my silly jokes. Thank you for helping me when I needed it. Thank you for giving me a ride when I needed to go to the hospital for health needs. Thank you for being kind to me when I failed to be kind. Thank you for forgiving me when I messed up. Thank you for sticking around to clean up after an event. Thank you for being gentle when I was hurting. Thank you for the cards you sent me on my birthday, Christmas, and Easter. Thank you for letting me take your picture for our website or social media presence. Thank you for bringing me cookies. Thank you for taking me out for meals. Thank you for participating in the planning and building of our new church! Thank you for letting me park my trailer on your property so I could go camping. Thank you for listening when I was trying to teach. Thank you for speaking when I needed to listen. Thank you for reminding me that I am precious in God's eyes and that he delights in me.

Thank you to all the wonderful staff I have known in my thirteen years. Thank you to those parishioners who visited our sick and dying. Thank you for checking on fellow parishioners when you noticed that they were unusually absent. Thank you for being so generous when a need arose. Thank you for accompanying new parishioners and visitors alike. Thank you for participating in our annual church open house and booth at the county fair. Thank you for your patience through all the changes during the pandemic. Thank you for stepping up to make our Food Box Program so successful. Thank you for giving money to the church so we could employ the talented staff that we have. Thank you for naming St. Anne, our school, and/or her missions in your estate planning. Thank you for coming and participating at Mass. Thank you for serving in our liturgical ministries, bible studies, music groups, rosary groups, our grade school, Faith Formation, youth and confirmation ministry, and even auxiliary ministries, most notably the Knights of Columbus and St. Vincent de Paul. Thank you for praying, serving, cleaning, fixing, and helping when no one was watching. Of course God saw it all...and sometimes I did too.

Thank you, most of all, for loving me, and showing me what it is to be a saint, being passionately in love with our Lord, and willing to share that joy with others. I take all these things with me, as I move to Holy Trinity. You have been a gift of immeasurable value to me. You have blessed me with Christ's presence, for which I will be forever grateful.

So, don't hesitate to come to Mass at Holy Trinity in Beaverton. Pray for me so that I can be the pastor that they need at this time, and that I will be responsive to their needs as God would want me to be. I will continue to pray for you. A big part of my heart will always be here. I will pop in to check on you on Facebook and YouTube. I hope to see the new and amazing things that will happen under Fr. Wolf, your new pastor.

My heart is full, and there is not enough room to write it here. So, I leave with the miraculous prayer given to me from my mother which has changed so many hearts: "O Jesus, I surrender myself to you. Take care of everything!"

Blessings! Goodbye! God be with you! Thank you!

CELEBRATING THE SAINTS

ST CYRIL OF ALEXANDRIA (378-444), born in Egypt, succeeded his uncle as Archbishop of Alexandria. At first he dealt severely with heresy and other conflicts, but became more compassionate in later years. The Nestorian heresy taught that there were 2 distinct persons in Christ, human and divine, and that Mary was not the Mother of God but of man. At the Council of Ephesus Cyril condemned Nestorianism and defended Church teaching that Mary was the Mother of God. Because of his stand against heresy and his writings on doctrine he was proclaimed Doctor of the Church.

His Feast Day is June 27th

One of the most moving passages in the Acts of the Apostles is found in Acts 20:17-38 where we see St. Paul preparing to leave the church at Ephesus. He believes that it will be the last time he sees them in this life. He calls the leaders of the church to meet with him since he wants to speak to them one more time before departing. The passage concludes by saying that he and the leaders of the church knelt together, prayed, and wept, “sorrowful most of all because...they would not see his face again” (Acts 20:38). The relationship St. Paul had to the church at Ephesus was undoubtedly one of deep love. When we read through the book of Acts we can sometimes get the impression that St. Paul is traveling so fast from one city to another that he would not have had time to form these kinds of deep relationships with the people he was ministering to. But this scene in Acts 20 tells a different story: A spiritual father saying goodbye to the people he has come to care so much for.

Now as I leave and head north to Eugene, I find myself in a similar situation to St. Paul. Although I have only been here a short while (a year plus that summer I was here as a deacon in 2018), I am having to say goodbye to a family I have grown to love. It has been such a blessing and joy to serve you as your priest. My heart is full with gratitude as I think about this past year. Thank you. The communities of St. Anne, St. Patrick, and Our Lady of the River will continue to hold a special place in my heart. Of course, as followers of the Risen Christ we know that our goodbyes are not forever, and that the Good and Merciful God who first brought us together has a way of bringing us back together again. I don’t know when we will see each other again, but I trust that God may very well cross our paths again in this life and ultimately in the life to come.

So as I say goodbye, I make St. Paul’s farewell my own, “And now I commend you to God and to the word of His grace, which is able to build you up and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified” (Acts 20:32). Keep your eyes fixed on Jesus Christ and on His cross, and all will be well. God bless you in all grace.

In Christ,
Fr. Stephen Kenyon

We have a team in place and we will be able to serve coffee, donuts, and good cheer after the 8am and the 11 am Masses starting June 19, 2022.

We now have all Masses covered but it would be helpful to have a few volunteers who could help during vacations, leave etc. The time commitment isn't long and it is an opportunity to meet fellow parishioners in a communal, friendly setting.

If you would like to know more please call Julie Scott or introduce yourself while you enjoy a cup of coffee and a donut.

ST. ANNE CATHOLIC SCHOOL
541-479-1582
website: stanneschoolgp.com

"St. Anne Catholic School is committed to faith formation, scholarship, leadership, and service according to our Catholic values."

SCHOOL IS OUT!

We will be busy the next few months with all the things we do during the summer—cleaning carpets, moving around furniture, cleaning and organizing classrooms, and ordering books and supplies. And don't forget the annual school auction is coming in August!

Both the school and church are putting more security cameras up, and with the current cameras we have, most of the campus will be covered. You probably have also noticed the new fencing. This is another way of updating school security. During school days, the gates will be kept locked and the school campus will be accessible only by going through the school office. After school hours, on school breaks, and for the entire weekend, the gates will be kept open. The parish center office and rooms 1, 2 and the fireside room will remain accessible to parishioners on school days as their entrances are outside the school fences.

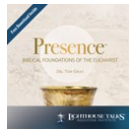

We are very appreciative of the willingness of our parish to let us take these additional steps to make the campus a safer place for our school children. If there are ever any issues, do not hesitate to contact the school office. Again, we are blessed by your support and thank you for your prayers. We hope you enjoy the use of the tables with umbrellas and the beautiful courtyard during the nice weather. We are pleased to be able to add to the campus these things that can be used by the whole parish!

Be sure to check out the Lighthouse Kiosk located in the Church narthex. The payment slot is on the lower right side of the Kiosk.

PRESENCE: BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS OF THE EUCHARIST

"How can this man give us his flesh to eat?" These words uttered 2,000 years ago are echoed today.

Join us as Dr. Tim Gray examines a few objections to the Church's Eucharistic teaching and provides scriptural evidence for these objections. This apologetic helps us to give a reason for our faith and to gain a deeper insight into what it means to be Catholic and experience the true presence of God in the Eucharist.

RECYCLING

Your donations make a difference!
Thank you!

- Please check your cans and bottles to make sure they are redeemable in Oregon. Please note that wine bottles are NOT redeemable.
- Please do not crush plastic bottles or cans.
- Please do not remove the labels from your bottles—in order to redeem the bottles, they must have the labels with the bar codes.

You might wonder how the brand new Coordinator of Youth and Family Ministry keeps busy. I am thrilled to find my schedule quickly filling. There are conversations with parishioners who are eager to help or participate in this ministry. There are logistics to work through in preparing for the ministry ahead. There is also the transition of our pastor and parochial vicar. No small change.

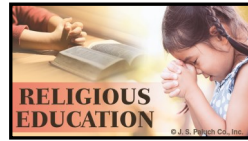

During this time of transition, I find comfort in a feeling of being "home." After my family and I moved to Grants Pass in the early '90s, we immediately began attending Mass at St. Anne Church. Later, my spouse, Emily, and I were married in the old church building before moving to Boston to study Catholic Theology. Just a few short years ago, Emily and I, along with our now-six-year-old daughter, Una, returned to Grants Pass and St. Anne after living in Washington where I was a youth minister for another Catholic parish. Now Emily and I are working at our home parish!

I was thinking about what I would most like to share this week and came up with this: Please keep me, this ministry and our young families in your prayers. Our youthful church is here with us. It takes all of us to make an effort to build relationships, pass on the rich beauty of our tradition and share in serving our world. Let's do it together.

God Bless!

Brian Suda
Coordinator of Youth & Family Ministry

LIFE, JUSTICE, AND PEACE

From USCCB Letter to Congress
Urging Action on Gun Violence
(June 3rd)

I ASK EVERYONE
WITH POLITICAL RESPONSIBILITY TO REMEMBER TWO THINGS:
HUMAN DIGNITY & THE

We urge you to reflect on the recent tragic events in Buffalo, Uvalde and Tulsa, and to take action. There must be dialogue followed by concrete action for a broader social renewal that addresses all aspects of the crisis, including mental health, the state of families, the valuation of life, the influence of entertainment and gaming industries, bullying, and the availability of firearms.

We urgently call on you to work together in a bipartisan fashion to enact reasonable gun control measures to make these horrific attacks less likely to happen again.

- We support pending bills for background checks and extreme risk protection orders ["red flag laws"], and
- A total ban on assault weapons and limitations on high-capacity magazines, and
- Measures to control the sale and use of firearms, and
- Proposals setting a minimum age for gun ownership and banning "bump stocks," and
- Laws criminalizing gun trafficking.

While strengthened gun laws could reduce mass-casualty events, they will not suffice to address their root causes. Therefore, in addition to calling for policies that encourage cultivation of strong family life, we call for increasing resources for mental health care and encourage peace-building in our communities.

A USCCB Update dated June 14th commends bipartisan Congressional negotiators for agreeing on a framework of reasonable gun safety measures and encourages the Congress to continue these efforts.

LECTIO: PETER: EPISODE 1: PUT OUT INTO THE DEEP

The character of St. Peter is both inspiring and confounding to many of us. How could a stubborn and impulsive fisherman become the "rock" upon which Jesus would build his Church? Bringing together biblical accounts, historical evidence, Church teaching, and personal insights, Dr. Tim Gray gives a fresh perspective on Simon Peter in this Lectio series.

If you would like to support the Chapel by being available for backup hours in the case of vacations or alternate commitments that crop up from time to time, it would be immensely helpful. Summer upon us and I know there will be vacancies from time to time. This would just be for the hours of Exposition 9:30am to Noon, Monday through Friday when the office is open. It would just be for one hour during Exposition.

In most cases, vacations, etc. the vacancy would be known ahead of time. There are occasional last minute changes and so far we have been able to cover for them but a few more names would make it easier. If you would like to be involved in this way please call Julie Scott.

The Chapel is available to parishioners 7 days a week 24 hours per day. It is secured by a keypad. If you have not visited the Chapel before please call the office for the code.

We meet every Monday
9:30am - 11:30am to craft together
in Room 1 of the Parish Center

All are welcome to join in!

Please use the Parish Center side entrance closest to Room 1.

Our next planning meeting will be Monday, June 27th.
